FINAL CHAMBER MUSIC
PROGRAM AT UM TUESDAY

MISSOULA--

Final performance in the Chamber Music Series at the University of Montana will be presented at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The program, which is open to the public without charge, is sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music.

Beethoven's "Quintet for Winds and Piano, Opus 16" will be presented by a new group known as the Montana Chamber Players, featuring Lucien Hut, assistant professor of music, piano; William Manning, acting music department chairman, clarinet; Jerry Domer, assistant professor of music, oboe; Dr. Edwin Rosenkranz, assistant professor of music, bassoon, and Lora Tannenholz, Missoula, an undergraduate music major at UM, horn.

The Prokofieff Quintet will feature an unusual combination of instruments. Group members include Eugene Andrie, professor of music, violin; Eugene Weigel, professor of music, viola; Frank Diliberto, part-time music lecturer, bass; Domer, oboe; and Manning, clarinet.

Andrie and Hut will play "Sonata in E flat major, Opus 18 for Violin and Piano" by Richard Strauss.

The Woodwind Trio from the Montana Chamber Players presented two performances in Missoula Friday, one at Hellgate High School and the other at Sentinel High School. Members of the trio include Domer, Manning and Rosenkranz.
